3/2009

First of all, on behalf of our entire staff, please accept our condolences on the loss of your loved one. We understand that this is an emotional time for everyone and that planning an event of such importance in such a very short period of time is challenging. Over the years we have assisted many clients during this difficult time.

The following menus we have found to be most characteristic of an event of this nature.

Menus and services can easily be customized to reflect any of your wishes.

Have a look and contact us, if we can help.
